

No cooking, no problem: Here's where to eat out on Thanksgiving

NOVEMBER 17, 2017

by GENA WYNKOOP

The turkey is basted, the stuffing is stuffed, and the cranberry sauce is crazy good. But the best part - you didn't even cook it! If this is your kind of Thanksgiving celebration than here's where you have to go and what you GOTTA eat!

Copperleaf at the Cedarbrook Lodge

Leave the cooking to Cedarbrook Lodge and enjoy a four-course Thanksgiving dinner! Their menu includes Mad Hatcher Roast Turkey and Pumpkin Pie Crème Brûlée, Maple-Glazed Berkshire Pork Belly and Salted Pretzel-Crusted Hawaiian Venison.

- Thursday, November 23, 12pm to 8pm
- $75 adults, $37.50 children (ages 6 – 12)
- $35 optional wine pairings

Salish Lodge & Spa

Salish will be serving up a luxurious comfort meal that will feature their award-winning food, wine, and not to mention that VIEW. Is there even a better place on earth to feel thankful?! They will be serving up a four-course dinner featuring classic favorites, Salish signature dishes, vegetarian and pescatarian entrées, and more. View the full menu here.

- Thursday, November 23, 2017
- 12pm to 7pm
- $100 per person (adults) | $35 per person (Young adults 6-12)

Semiahmoo Resort, Golf, and Spa

Head up to Blaine for Thanksgiving! Semiahmoo Resort will have a buffet in the ballroom as well as a menu in their restaurant, Pierside Kitchen. View the full menu here!

- Thursday, November 23, 2017
- Buffett – Semiahmoo Ballroom 11am to 6pm
- Pierside Kitchen 2pm to 8pm
- $43 per person (adults) | $20 per person (Young adults 6-12) | Free (Children 5 and under)

Trellis at The Heathman Hotel

The holiday meal will start with roasted baby beets and cauliflower cappelletti followed by scallops, honey glazed game hen and smoked venison entrees. And for dessert - Pumpkin Cheesecake, pecan tart and dark chocolate mousse. Check out the full menu here!

- Thursday, November 23, 2017
- Full 3 Course Thanksgiving Feast
- $85 per person (Adults) | $25 per person (Children)